

I hope that on June 2nd the commission votes to uphold the current regulations, rather than changing them to favor consolidation. I truly value the opportunity to listen to and watch locally produced programs, as well as programs that may not appear profitable to owners interested in profit and ratings.